			Lori P Arche	This is Lori Arche, you guys know my story as I have been calling in every week now for months. Me and my family are homeless due to the lack of owner occupy evictions and a wealthy single guy taking advantage of the moratorium. Regarding item 15 on mental health, please keep in mind you should also keep in mind the mental health of property owners as well. This situation fills my thoughts daily and I am unengaged with my children, can't sleep, and emotional. As a person who has been born and raised in Los Angeles it is appalling to me that the Board cannot work together to provide a solution for Owner Occupy for Single Family residences. I bought my first condo on 4th and San Pedro in downtown LA. Then few years later moved to Fairfax and Pico and then from there West LA. And just moved from West LA in February of this year to be closer to our family. So as a person in Holly Mitchells district for many years it is disappointing that her staff is not giving this attention it deserves and essentially blocking the proposal from Janet Hahns office from moving forward. I was recently told that since the new house is not in Hollys Mitchells district that I they will not be talking to me. How is that fair? You block the proposal since it isn't in your district but we need the vote to move forward. I don't understand why a group of people cant sit together for 30 minutes and provide a solution that works for property owners and protects the vulnerable. This seems like something that should be in the works anyway since the moratorium is set to end in 2 months.
			Melinda Currado	This sounds like a step in healing from the most terrible mis-use of power that the virus caused. Another great step would be to take away power from the health department and government agencies so people could rest in the fact that this will never happen again. People should have the freedom to choose, knowing there is risk in everything. Healing happens with trust.
